

INDEX OF ARTICLES

JANUARY - DECEMBER, 1966

ADVERTISING & PROMOTION:

- Are your advertising dollars going down the drain? January, p. 21
- Selling via phone, January, p. 28
- Premiums pull new customers, January, p. 34
- Promotion-minded cleaner attracts price-minded trade, March, p. 116
- Display ads sell summer services, June, p. 60
- Promotion & quality bring in repeat customers, July, p. 52
- Route sales promotion builds plant's volume, September, p. 39
- The "pros" do it better—Ask Arnold Palmer, September, p. 43

ASSOCIATIONS:

- Your local association—What does it do for you? Special Survey #1, February, p. 43
- List of regional associations, February, p. 91
- Your local association—Special Survey #2, April, p. 98
- Your local association—Special Survey #3, June, p. 66
- Your local association—Special Survey #4, August, p. 59
- Your local association—Special Survey #5, October, p. 14
- Your local association—Special Survey #6, November, p. 62

AUTOMATION:

- Automation in call office soars route and counter sales, March, p. 20
- New conveyor widens plant's profit scene, March, p. 26
- Automated cash-system backs up cash-carry trade, July, p. 72

BUSINESS COUNSEL:

- Check many changes in income

- tax law, February, p. 62
- Employers' rights in discharging & hiring employees, April, p. 54
- Tax law changes thru mid-year call for cleaner's close look, August, p. 56

COIN-OPS:

- Manager sees one-stop service as cleaner's future, August, p. 28
- Coin-Op drycleaner attracts wealthy clientele, October, p. 48
- Run-down store remade by a pro, November, p. 50
- Pro service promoted by coin-op drycleaner, November, p. 64

CONVENTIONS, EXHIBITS:

- A.I.L.: February, p. 31
- Speakers & program, February, p. 32
- Live plant on exhibit floor, February, p. 39
- Exhibitors, March, p. 112
- Program & speakers, March, p. 113
- Convention report, May, p. 60
- NID: February, p. 21
- Schedule, February, p. 22
- Speakers & program, February, p. 26
- Chicago feature, February, p. 34
- Exhibitors, March, p. 108
- Program highlights, March, p. 110
- Convention report, April, p. 66

DRYCLEANING METHOD:

- "Hot" or "cold" unit debate, May, p. 14
- Hot or cold drycleaning units for your plant? July, p. 41

EDITORIALS:

- Intertwining of drycleaning &

- laundry industries, January, p. 4

NID-UNCLE conventions-exhibits a must for progressive plantowner, February, p. 4

Benefits available from local associations, March, p. 4

Sell spring-cleaning of family garments, April, p. 4

At last—a joint NID/A.I.L. convention in 1967, May, p. 4

Federal Minimum Wage Bill threatens plantowners, June, p. 4

Clean plant & safety of prime importance, July, p. 4

Job Corps beneficial to plant-owners, August, p. 4

NID on durable press, September, p. 4

Need for "model law" covering unclaimed garments problem, October, p. 4

Establishing a fair price for drycleaning services, November, p. 4

Your major customer—the American woman, December, p. 4

EXPERT ADVICE:

- Spotting slip-ups, January, p. 8
- First-hand technical aid offered at convention-exhibits, February, p. 13
- New silk & wool blends, March, p. 14
- New fabrics from designers test skills of drycleaners, April, p. 38
- "Hot" or "cold" unit debate, May, p. 14
- Lot system vs. classification in cleaning and laundry products, June, p. 10
- Spotting techniques, July, p. 10
- White garments in summertime, August, p. 10

continued on page 56

continued from page 54

Solve your cooling problems now for next summer, September, p. 14

Lustrous finish on fabrics creates dilemma for plants, October, p. 6

Leather, suede articles require individual care, November, p. 6

Putting stains in instead of taking them out, December, p. 6

FABRICS:

New silk & wool blends, March, p. 14

Pile fabrics, March, p. 123

"Op" art & "bonded" fabrics, April, p. 19

New fabrics from designers, April, p. 38

Laundering of synthetics, April, p. 44

pH control & titration: What do they do? April, p. 48

Nothing is permanent—not even durable press, April, p. 62

The knit boom, April, p. 64

Impact of durable press shirts on plantowners, May, p. 50

Fading and color loss in heavy-weight cotton prints, September, p. 16

Dangers to avoid in finishing natural and new synthetic fabrics, September, p. 18

Is this garment disposable or dry-cleanable, September, p. 26

Fiber identification chart, September, p. 74

Bonded textiles, September, p. 88

Lustrous finish on fabrics creates new dilemma for plants, October, p. 6

Velvet finishing, October, p. 9

Leather/suede articles require individual care, November, p. 6

Suede-leather service needs expertise to be a profitable extra, November, p. 22

FILTRATION:

Diatomaceous vs. cartridge filtration survey, July, p. 42

2 opposing points of view, July, p. 44.

FINANCING:

Small Business Investment Act Program provides funds for modernization or expansion, February, p. 40

The money market, July, p. 67

How does the market affect the plantowner, July, p. 68

Truck leasing, October, p. 43

FINISHING:

Suede/leather garments, February, p. 14

New silk & wool blends, March, p. 14

Pile fabrics, March, p. 123

"Op" art & "bonded" fabrics, April, p. 19

New fabrics from designers test skill of drycleaners, April, p. 38

Long gowns, April, p. 74

Silk & mixed silk fabrics, May, p. 82

White garments in summertime, August, p. 10

Finishing directory, October, p. 28

FINISHING TOUCH:

Straightening twisted bias-cut collars, January, p. 14

Extra care of knitwears, February, p. 52

Blocking of knitwear, March, p. 10

Jacket finishing, April, p. 12

What is quality? May, p. 10

Debate: Unit finishing vs. divided operation in plants, June, p. 64

Review finishing procedures for efficient operation, July, p. 59

Correct padding for right job, August, p. 14

Dangers to avoid in finishing natural and new synthetic fabrics, September, p. 18

Velvet finishing, October, p. 9

The A B C's of finishing equipment, October, p. 34

Know your costs for success with households, November, p. 9

1966 in review—A look ahead at the challenges of '67, December, p. 10

FLATWORK:

Focusing on flatwork laundering, June, p. 53

Bugs in flatwork ironers, June, p. 56

Flatwork, cleaner's new asset, August, p. 44

Flatwork ironer develops shirt volume, November, p. 42

FLEET FACTS:

Fleet facts: March, p. 120

INSURANCE:

What the sole proprietor should look for when buying insurance, October, p. 58

What partnerships and corporations look for when buying insurance, November, p. 56

IT'S HY TIME:

It's Hy Time, January, p. 55

It's Hy Time, February, p. 81

It's Hy Time, March, p. 125

It's Hy Time, April, p. 55

It's Hy Time, May, p. 48

LAUNDRY PROFITLINES:

Plant tours turn viewers into steady shirt trade, January, p. 50

Shirts lead way in cleaner's future growth, March, p. 34

Volume increases (30%) via laundering uniforms, March, p. 41

Quality shirts pay for Dixie pro, April, p. 57

Inspections insure quality shirts, June, p. 46

Promotion & quality bring in repeat customers, July, p. 52

Route sales promotion builds volume, September, p. 39

Neat rental uniform route trucks play up local ownership, October, p. 54

Model plant offers total service, November, p. 26

LEGAL ADVICE:

Claim for ruined furs, September, p. 96

MAINTENANCE:

Lubricating can prevent gear failure, January, p. 71

Pump maintenance tips, February, p. 70

Maintenance of steam generators, March, p. 121

Boiler maintenance tips, April, p. 70

Periodic check of wash formulas can decrease utility bills, May, p. 143

Boiler damage control, December, p. 126

Clean plant & safety of prime importance, July, p. 4

Make your call office insect free, July, p. 73

Causes of fires in plants, August, p. 70

Oil leaks in washwheels, September, p. 64

Importance of lubrication, September, p. 86

MANAGEMENT:

Small Business Investment Act Program provides funds for modernization or expansion, February, p. 40

Foresight, courage, and emphasis on quality and cleanliness brings success to Tennessee plantowner, February, p. 44

Color-coded conveyors speed plant's assembly and bagging, March, p. 54

Space saving systems spur plant's work flow, March, p. 103

Helpful clues for handling counter orders, March, p. 106

Saga of Mr. Drycleaner: "No cleaning job is too tough", April, p. 26

Custom tailoring is cornerstone of cleaner's business, April, p. 34

Drycleaner dispels summer lull via services to resort, June, p. 26

Continuous good management for over a century, June, p. 32

Effective management procedures transform a dream into a success story, July, p. 20

Three managerial "keys" open profit road to plantowner, July, p. 58

The money market, July, p. 67

How does the market affect the plantowner, July, p. 68

Charge cards widen potential trade, August, p. 23

Manager sees one-stop service as cleaner's future, August, p. 28

Relocating to expand services requires shrewd business sense, August, p. 34

Modern management methods hike wholesale volume, August, p. 38

Managerial ability offers smooth path to high profits, August, p. 52

Handling complaints efficiently is important, September, p. 46

Unclaimed garments, September, p. 54

PERMANENT PRESS:

Nothing is permanent — not even durable press, April, p. 62

Impact of durable press shirts on plantowners, May, p. 50

Permanent press impact on shirt laundering, August, p. 61

Durable press forum, November, p. 77

PLANT DESIGN:

Modern plant design, October, p. 23

POWER:

Pump maintenance tips, February, p. 70

Maintenance of steam generators, March, p. 121

Boiler maintenance tips, April, p. 70

Power directory, October, p. 28

Modern plant keeps pneumatic power trouble-free with air-dryer, October, p. 50

Boiler damage control, December, p. 126

POWER PRIMER:

Lubricating can prevent gear failure, January, p. 71

Pump maintenance tips, February, p. 70

Maintenance of steam generators, March, p. 121

Boiler maintenance tips, April, p. 70

Periodic check of wash formulas can decrease utility bills, May, p. 43

Tips for water conservation, June, p. 68

Low cost of re-circulating water, July, p. 74

Causes of fires in plants, August, p. 70

Importance of lubrication, September, p. 86

Shut off steam for cool summer $, October, p. 66

Winter freeze-up hazards, November, p. 68

Boiler damage control, December, p. 126

PROFITABLE EXTRAS:

Specialties for profit—glove cleaning, leather/suede, bridal gown protection, January, p. 42

How can you sell box storage? June, p. 22

Drapery cleaning, storage soars in new promotion, June, p. 37

Tuxedo rentals revive summer trade, June, p. 42

Neat rental uniform route trucks play up local ownership, October, p. 54

Suede-leather service needs expertise to be a profitable extra, November, p. 22

Drapery service accelerates plant's growth, November, p. 31

There's money in dyeing, November, p. 34

continued on page 58

continued from page 57

Emerald drycleaning extras lure customers, November, p. 38

Copying service at store increases customer traffic, November, p. 48

QUALITY CLEANING:

Suede/leather garments can be handled, February, p. 14

Quality control spearheads cleaner's laundry drive, February, p. 29

Extra care of knitwear, February, p. 52

Blocking of knitwear, March, p. 10

Jacket finishing, April, p. 12

Quality shirts pay for Dixie pro, April, p. 57

Long gowns — drycleaner's challenge, April, p. 74

New fabrics from designers test skill of drycleaners, April, p. 38

Laundering of synthetics, April, p. 44

What is quality? May, p. 10

Treatment of silk & mixed silk fabrics, May, p. 82

Inspection insures quality shirts, June, p. 46

Promotion & quality bring in repeat customers, July, p. 52

Correct padding for right job, August, p. 14

Misuse of prespotting cited by NID as chief cause of fabric damage, September, p. 22

Suede-leather service needs expertise to be a profitable extra, November, p. 22

100% guaranteed job on draperies, November, p. 31

RECORD KEEPING:

Automation in call office soars route and counter sales, March, p. 20

Automated cash system backs up cash-carry trade, July, p. 72

ROUTE SALES:

Tools of selection for hiring routemen, January, p. 31

Route sales promotion builds plant's volume, September, p. 39

Neat rental uniform route trucks play up local ownership, October, p. 54

Train your route salesmen to spot upholstery/carpets, November, p. 45

SHIRTS:

Strong sales effort soars shirt volume, January, p. 46

Why shirt laundering in your plant? May, p. 22

Digest of shirt stain removal, May, p. 26

Shirts account for 25% of entire volume in New England "white collar belt" plant, May, p. 30

Cleaner's "shirt club" promotion builds repeat trade, May, p. 36

Reasons for inplant laundering outweigh economy of "farming out," May, p. 48

Inspection insures quality shirts, June, p. 46

Shirts and flatwork cleaner's new assets, August, p. 44

Flatwork ironer develops shirt volume, November, p. 42

SHIRT TECHNIQUES:

Wetting agents in shirt formulas reduce washovers, January, p. 44

Short cuts to hot water costly, February, p. 68

Shirts in Australia, New Zealand, March, p. 50

Soil removal from collars, April, p. 61

Good shirt preparation routine nets high production volume, May, p. 8

Plant's problems with shirts poorly laundered by housewives, June, p. 50

Beware "pre-shrunk" labels from non-reputable firms, July, p. 14

Permanent press impact on shirt laundering industry, August, p. 61

Oil leaks in washwheels, September, p. 64

ber, p. 64

Soap's "life-span" can be extended with buffering agents, October, p. 13

Holes in shirts, November, p. 12

Bacteria in the wash process, December, p. 87

SOLVENTS:

Charge systems review, July, p. 26

Reclaiming your solvent, July, p. 32

SPOTTING:

Spotting slip-ups, January, p. 8

Fifth annual mystery spot contest, April, p. 40

Soil removal from collars, April, p. 61

Digest of shirt stain removal, May, p. 26

Causes of solvent stain, June, p. 14

Spotting techniques, July, p. 10

Misuse of prespotting cited by NID as chief cause of fabric damage, September, p. 22

Spotlight on mystery spot—and winners, September, p. 24

Train your route salesmen to spot upholstery/carpets, November, p. 45

WATER:

Tips for water conservation, June, p. 68

Low cost of re-circulating water, July, p. 74

ZU'S CLOSE LOOK:

Suede/leather garments can be handled, February, p. 14

Pile fabrics, March, p. 123

Long gowns — drycleaner's challenge, April, p. 74

Treatment of silk & mixed silk fabrics, May, p. 82

Causes of solvent stain, June, p. 14

Fading and color loss in heavy-weight cotton prints, September, p. 16

Handling beaded dresses, December, p. 66

